Important Note: The first month of a new direct deposit or with any change in bank or bank accounts, a test run (pre-note) with zero dollars will be run to verify the account and routing numbers. Provided there are no rejections during the pre-note process, your money will be deposited electronically the same month. If a rejection occurs, you will be contacted for further instructions. Funds electronically deposited will be available at the opening of the banking day on payday. Payday is generally the last banking day of the month.
