Still Deciding on College? Try a Virtual Campus Visit.

COVID has complicated the college visit process, but virtual visits are a safe alternative. Online tours and info sessions help bridge the gap when students can’t check out a campus in person.

- Many colleges are offering virtual tours on their websites. The Washington GEAR UP program has compiled a list of online college tours that will be updated as more sites add these resources.
- GEAR UP also offers a series of virtual campus visits. These video presentations highlight colleges across the state, including a number of public and private four-year universities and two-year community and technical colleges.
- For schools with no virtual tours available, consider doing an online scavenger hunt. Use the form to research, compare choices, and find a good fit.
Most colleges are still accepting applications for fall 2021. It’s not too late to consider your options for education after high school. Learn more and plan your future on the Washington Student Achievement Council website.

GSA: If you are interested in joining the GSA, we are up and running! We meet in-person on Thursdays from 11:15am-12:30pm (right after in-person school ends) in the CJSIH Library. 9th-12th grades only. Masks and adequate physical distancing are required. Currently, we don’t have a link for online meetings, but we’re happy to make one if someone wants to join remotely! Just send an email to stephanie_tell@csd49.org.

COMMUNITY SERVICE OPPORTUNITY: Contact Carrie Beebe if you would like to help set up (7:30am) or clean up (5pm) at the PT Golf Course Saturday, February 27 for the Cross Country Meet we are hosting. This involves mainly walking the course to put in/take out course marker flags.

KCPT presents May’s Vote: The year 2020 marked the centennial of the 19th Amendment, which gave most women nationwide the right to vote. Here in Washington State, many women won the right to vote a FULL DECADE BEFORE the 19th Amendment.

Key City Public Theatre will present a streamed performance, followed by a live commentary and Q & A. Virtual performances will be March 24, 26, April 15, 17 at 7:00pm and April 10 at 10am. Tickets are FREE and you may secure your free tickets here: https://keycitypublictheatre.org/maysvote/. Enjoy!

From the AD Desk

Athletes with IC’s need to contact Ms. Beebe about getting help, contact your teachers to find out how you can fix your grade, and come to study hall if you need it.
